Get the look

I've designed this office with a working from home situation in mind. I've gone for a more luxe look, with the star of the show being that sexy black desk. Curves, ribs plus storage, could it get any better?! I've echoed the black in small amounts with the shelving frame, both lamps, desk clock, tiger vase and frame on the artwork. Black is always chic when you introduce it into any colour scheme. Softening the look with the cream rug and chair. These two items work well together as they both have the same colourway. Adding warmth with the wood in the shelves. I imagine these shelves styled with beautiful books, plants and your favourite nick nacks. Playing on that luxe card, this gorgeous earthy red coloured velvet chair, bringing curves and warmth too. I call this the "thinking chair". Its nice to have a second more cozy chair to think decisions through, drink your morning coffee or maybe just splendor at your beautiful office! The most stunning rubbish bin you've ever seen. No need to hide this one under the desk. Accessories really make this look work. I've chosen a colour palette and stuck with it, as well as echoing similar shapes. Finally, I love a playful piece and this cute little tiger wall vase is the perfect unexpected extra. Who wouldn't want to work in this office?!
